Student Information Program- Internship Alert

Funder:

Bank of America

Scholarship Title:

Student Leaders Program

Deadline: February 17, 2010

Description:

The Student Leaders Program is an integral part of Bank of America's Neighborhood Excellence Initiative, and it offers community-minded high school juniors and seniors an invaluable opportunity to help change the world.

Bank of America Student Leaders participate in an all-expenses paid week-long Student Leadership Summit in Washington, D.C. in July 2010. This leadership development program provides valuable perspectives on civic, social, and business partnerships as positive forces of change within our communities.

Together, the summer internship experience at a nonprofit and leadership development through the Bank of America Student Leadership Summit will develop young people's skills and strengthen their understanding of how to build on their commitment to improving their community.

Eligibility: To be considered as a Student Leader, you must:

- Currently be a junior or senior in high school
- Be able to participate in a week-long Student Leadership Summit in Washington, DC (July 18 - 23, 2010)
- Be able to participate in an 8-week paid internship at a local nonprofit/charitable organization
- Be legally authorized to work in the US without sponsorship (U.S. Markets)
- Be a student in good standing at his/her school

Application:

Complete the on-line application by February 17, 2010:

Application consists of two parts:

1. Address questions regarding community involvement and leadership, and
2. Letter of Recommendation (submitted online with application) by teacher, counselor, or other school official. Letter of Recommendation must be on official school letterhead.

Award:

- An 8-week paid internship at a local non-profit and
- An all expenses paid trip to Washington, DC to attend the week-long Student Leadership Summit, July 18th – 23rd, 2010.
