

Congresswoman Lucille Roybal-Allard invites you to attend her U.S. Service Academies Workshop

If you are interested in receiving a prestigious university degree and becoming a military officer, consider attending a United States Service Academy.

At this free informational workshop, academy representatives and current students will be available to answer questions about eligibility requirements, cadet life, academics, athletics, and career opportunities after graduation.

Open to students, parents and the public.

Location: Downey City Library
1121 Brookshire Ave.
Downey, CA 90241

Date: Saturday, Oct 18, 2014

Time: 9:00 am - 10:30 am
Registration opens at 8:30 am

Attendees will learn about our nation's five service academies and how to obtain a Congressional nomination for the application.

For more information call:
Talia Leon at (323) 721-8790

Congresswoman Lucille Roybal-Allard

offers students

Paying for College: Student Resource Guide

Find scholarships, internships, and fellowships, plus other websites and books to find additional scholarship opportunities.

www.roybal-allard.house.gov/students

Twenty-First Annual 40th Congressional District Student Art Competition

Win a trip to Washington, D.C., and have your artwork displayed in the U.S. Capitol for one year! This competition is open to all high school students (grades 9-12) residing in the 40th Congressional District. Selected entries will be professionally framed and exhibited in a gallery for one month. Students and schools that submit art pieces are eligible to win various scholarships and awards. The first place winner will receive a trip to Washington, D.C., for him/herself and a guardian to attend the opening of the national exhibit.

Art Entry Date: TBD February, 2015

Congressional Internships

My office accepts resumes from high school and college students interested in interning in my district or D.C. offices. Interns have the opportunity to gain firsthand knowledge about how a Congressional office provides constituent services and interacts with the community. All internships are unpaid. For more information, contact my district office at (323) 721-8790, or my Washington, D.C. office at (202) 225-1766

U.S. Service Academy Nominations

Members of Congress have the honor of nominating qualified students for our U.S. Service Academies. These federally-funded universities offer students a fully-funded bachelor's degree program in exchange for five years of military service as a commissioned officer.

The deadline to apply for a nomination is Nov. 15, 2014.

An informational workshop is scheduled for Saturday, October 18, 2014.

For more details please call Talia Leon at (323) 721-8790.

Financial Aid & Scholarship Workshops

My office offers two types of workshops for groups of students and their parents:

1. FAFSA Form-Completion Workshops
2. How-To-Pay-for-College Workshops

