Supreme Court Judicial Internship

Contact: Supreme Court Fellow, Office of the Counselor to the Chief Justice, Room 5, Supreme Court of the United States, Washington, DC, 20543,

<http://www.supremecourt.gov/jobs/jip/jip.aspx>

Eligibility: The Judicial Internship Program at the Supreme Court offers advanced undergraduates and graduating seniors who have interests in law, management, and social sciences a unique opportunity to gain exposure to the field of judicial administration through work in the Office of the Counselor to the Chief Justice. Interns work eight-hour days, five days a week. Thus, other employment is not feasible. Judicial Interns perform several routine but important office tasks, which include summarizing news articles and preparing memoranda and correspondence. Interns also conduct background research for speeches and briefings provided to visiting foreign dignitaries. Additionally, interns may participate in the diverse research projects conducted by the Supreme Court Fellow and the Counselor. These projects require interns to gather, assemble and synthesize information from a wide range of sources. Such assignments demand experience with office and library resources, the ability to work under time constraints, strict attention to detail, creative thinking, and editorial skills.

Award: The internship is unpaid. Interns may receive academic credit through special arrangement with their college or university and consultation with the Supreme Court Fellow. Depending on funding, a $1000 scholarship may be available based on the following criteria:

1. Interns must successfully complete the internship.
2. Within one year of completing the internship, students must return to an undergraduate program or enroll in a graduate or professional degree program.

Deadline: Fall term - June 10, Spring term - October 20, Summer term - March 10
